

STATE TAX CHANGES – JULY 2015*

CALIFORNIA

Effective July 1, 2015, California’s tax on diesel will be increased to $0.13 per gallon. The tax on gasoline is reduced to $0.30 per gallon. There are no changes to the aviation fuel tax which remains at $0.02 per gallon or to the aviation gasoline tax which remains at $0.18 per gallon.

The prepaid sales tax rates as set on April 1, 2015 are $0.05 per gallon for gasoline, $0.225 per gallon for diesel and $0.115 per gallon for jet fuel.

CONNECTICUT

Effective July 1, 2015, Connecticut’s tax on diesel will be reduced by $0.042 per gallon to $0.503 per gallon. The applicable reporting forms for diesel fuel will be updated to reflect this change.

GEORGIA

Effective July 1, 2015 gasoline and diesel will exempt from the prepaid state sales tax on fuel. Instead, gasoline will be taxed at a flat rate of $0.26 per gallon and diesel will be taxed at a flat rate of $0.29 per gallon. LPGs, CNG and special fuels will be taxed at the diesel rate. Aviation gasoline will taxed at $0.01 per gallon. This rate will be adjusted annually.

IDAHO

Legislation signed in late April changes Idaho’s fuel tax rates and adopts a gasoline gallon equivalent for compressed natural gas and a diesel gallon equivalent for liquefied natural gas. Effective July 1, 2015 the fuel tax rates will be:

Fuel Type	Tax Rate

NEVADA

Effective July 1, 2015, Nevada will reduce the rate of tax on liquefied petroleum gas from $0.22 per gallon to $0.064 per gallon. For purposes of determining the tax, 36.3 cubic feet or 4.2 pounds of liquefied petroleum gas are deemed equal to 1 gallon of special fuel.

OHIO

Effective July 1, 2015, Ohio's Petroleum Activity Tax ("PAT") will be reported and paid based on "calculated gross receipts" rather than actual gross receipts. This change will require taxpayers to determine their gross receipts based on the number of gallons of gasoline and non-gasoline sold multiplied by the average wholesale prices as posted by the Ohio Tax Commissioner. The average wholesale price of gasoline will be posted by the Tax Commissioner 15 days prior to the start of the calendar quarter to which the prices apply. Full details of these changes can be found at: http://www.tax.ohio.gov/PetroleumActivityTax/Information_releases/PAT/pat201501.aspx

RHODE ISLAND

Effective July 1, 2015 Rhode Island's motor fuel tax will increase to $0.33 per gallon. Under Rhode Island's motor fuel tax statutes, every two years the fuel tax must be adjusted for inflation based on the consumer price index. The 2015 change reflects a 3.125% increase.

VIRGINIA

Virginia has announced that its tax rates will be unchanged for the period July 1, 2015 – December 31, 2015 and will be as follows:

Fuel Type	Tax Rate
Gasoline	$0.162 per gallon
Diesel	$0.202 per gallon
Blended Fuels (Gasoline)	$0.162 per gallon
Blended Fuels (Diesel)	$0.202 per gallon
Aviation Fuel	$0.05 per gallon (reduced to $0.005 per gallon after the first 100,000 gallons)
Alternative Fuel	$0.162 gasoline gallon equivalent

WASHINGTON

Effective July 1, 2015 the Petroleum Products Tax will be reinstated. The tax has been suspended since April 2010. The rate of tax will be 0.3% ad valorem ($0.003) of the wholesale value of petroleum products at the time of the first non-bulk possession of petroleum products in Washington. If the first non-bulk possession is a sale at the rack to an exporter for direct delivery outside Washington, the tax is not imposed.
